Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 3, 6, 10, 13, 15, 19, 20, 23, 28, 30-32, 37, and 38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Shepherd (6408542).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 5 and 33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shepherd in view of Gamm (4630383).

Shepherd shows a shoe with a closure system (lace and eyelets 32 and edge portions 34), a tongue (15) with first engagement member (52), a cover (16) with a second engagement member (51) and a first securing mechanism (side portions of 51) substantially as claimed except for holes in the cover for passing the lace therethrough. Gamm teaches providing holes (23) in a cover for passing a lace therethrough. It would have been obvious to provide holes as taught by Gamm in the cover of the shoe of Shepherd to allow the wearer to easily tighten and loosen the lace without removing the cover.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 2, 4, 7-9, 11, 12, 14, 16-18, 21, 22, 24-27, 29, and 34-36 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
